

Creative Homework

For your autumn term creative homework, we would love to see your interpretation of a scene from a midsummer nights dream!

We will be studying the Shakespeare play throughout our learning this term, and encourage you to be creative by making a shoebox style scene such as the examples below:

